PROPOSAL

Hybrid Game Show

What is it?

This is a fun, engaging hybrid game show that combines a few great classics: Pictionary, Trivial Pursuits, 30 seconds, quiz show and for the final round a mix of "Who is the weakest link and "Who wants to be a millionaire" and "win it in a minute".

The program can be run before, during or after the meal. Delegates are split into teams and would strategise their game plan.

How does it work?

The show will start with a clear explanation of the rules of the game, prizes up for grabs and examples of play. A few practice rounds will then be played to make sure everyone is ok with the rules.

The game would then start with each group playing a game, until a winner from each is found.

Once this happens, each winner from each table would head up on stage to take part in "Who is the Strongest Link?", but with the audience at each table voting for the weakest link at the appropriate time. The players would be able to, during play:

- Ask a friend from their group for help once
- Get a clue once
- Eliminate options once

A grand prize will be awarded to the entire group of the winning individual.

Equipment required

- Microphones (optional): One per group for the final "Who is the strongest link" and one for the MC.
